

Keele School of Law Academic Staff

law school home /academic staff

Professor Martin Wasik

LL.B. (Manchester) 1975, M.A. (Keele) 1981, F.R.S.A 1978

Professor of Criminal Justice Tel: x 4363 or email

Martin has a long-standing research interest in various sentencing, especially in the control of discretion through guidelines. Other interests include criminal evidence, information technology, especially computer-related working on a collaborative project on the use and misuse of information.

He is a member of the Editorial Board of the Criminal Law Review.

In 1999 he was appointed the first Chairman of the Sentencing Advisory Panel under statute to advise and assist the Court of Appeal in the issuing of sentences in criminal courts. For further information about the Panel, its membership, and the Sentencing Advisory Panel

Martin teaches criminal Law, criminal justice, sentencing and evidence.

Martin is happy to supervise postgraduate research in criminal law, criminal procedure, sentencing law and policy. For details of research student projects by Prof Martin Wasik, please see the Law Research Students pages.

Publications include:

- Criminal Justice: Text and Materials, (co-author, with Gibbons and Redman, 1999).
- Emmins on Sentencing, 4th ed. (Blackstone, 2001)
- Blackstone's Criminal Practice (co-author), 12th ed, (Blackstone Press, 2000)
- 'Character Evidence and Criminal Procedure' (with Jackson), in Hayton (Hart Publishing, 2000), pp.349-369.

Back to Academic Staff list

Keele University Home | School of Law Home

School of Law, Keele University, Staffordshire, ST5 5BG

Tel: +44 (0)1782 583218 | Fax: +44 (0)1782 583228 | Email: School of Law Office